“ I met Xukui in a ladies' dance class a few years ago. I remember her always standing in the front row and being one of the most studious members. We learned that she was a doctor in China before coming to the United States, so we often asked her some health and medical questions, and she was always happy to share answers. We haven't seen her since March last year. Later we learned that she was sick. We all hoped that she would return to the class after she recovered. We were so shocked and sad to hear the news of her death today! Xukui, you will be missed! Condolences and sympathy to your family!

Well said! Xukui joined the dance class over 10 years ago and we shared a lot of memories of learning, exercising and dancing with fun and laughters. While time moves on, the memories remains with us forever! Rest in Peace Xukui. You'll be missed dearly!
